Limit of loans to Small Scale Units

*779. SHRI J. S. RAJU:

SHRI SANJAY DALMIA:

Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether small scale units are contributing 30 per cent of the total export of the country;

(b) whether large scale industrial units were allowed to draw loans to the extent of 19 per cent of their turn-over whereas small scale units are allowed to draw only 8 per cent;

(c) if so, the reasons therefor;

(d) whether Government propose to remove this limit; and

(e) if not, the reasons therefor?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY): (a) The share of exports from small scale industrial (SSI) sector in the total exports of the country in the year 1993-94 was 36.33% (provisional).

(b) The Committee to examine the adequacy of institutional credit to the SSI sector under the chairmanship of Shri P. R. Nayak had estimated that the availability of working capital Finance (on the basis of data for 1989-90) from banks to the medium and large industries was 19.4% of their total output. For the SSI sector as a whole, the availability of working capital fiinance from banks was estimated at 8.1% of the total output.

(c) to (e) RBI has reported that based on the recommendations of the Nayak Committeee report, banks have been advised to grant working capital credit limits to SSI units computed on the basis of a minimum of 20% of their projected annual turn-over to the SSIs whose credit limits in individual cases do not exceed Rs. one Crore. Banks have also been advised to give preference and step up credit flow to village industries, tiny industries and other small scale units, in that order, while meeting the credit requirements of the small sector.
